customer care team will help you fix it quickly so you can travel stress-free. Entered the wrong name while booking your JetBlue Airways ticket? Don't panic -- it happens to thousands of travelers every day. Whether it's a small spelling mistake, swapped first and last name, or a missing middle initial, you can easily correct your passenger details by contacting JetBlue

This quick guide explains everything about JetBlue Airways's name correction policy, how to request changes online or by phone, and what documents you might need.

Airways require your ticket name to exactly match your government-issued ID or passport. Even a minor mismatch can cause check-in issues or boarding delays. JetBlue Airways understands that typos happen, so it provides flexible name correction options for passengers.

you can speak directly with a JetBlue Airways representative who will guide you through the correction process in minutes.

You can correct your name through one of three convenient methods:
1. Call JetBlue Airways Customer Service (Fastest Option)

are available 24 hours a day to handle:
• Spelling corrections (e.g., "Jonh" to "John")
• First or last name swaps
• Middle name additions or removals
• Typing or formatting mistakes
Provide your booking reference (PNR) and passport details, and the agent will make the update immediately. Most corrections are completed within minutes if the ticket is still active and valid.
2. Use the "Manage Booking" Tool Online
If the name error is minor, you might be able to fix it directly on the JetBlue Airways website:
• Go to Website
• Click Manage My Booking
• Enter your last name and booking reference
• Review your details and select the "Edit Passenger Name" option (if available)
• Confirm the correction and save the changes
For major name changes (like replacing the traveler entirely), the system will not allow editing --

3. Visit the Airport Ticket Counter
If your departure is near and you can't access your booking online, visit the JetBlue Airways counter at the airport. Bring your passport and original e-ticket. The airline representative will verify your identity and process the correction.

JetBlue Airways distinguishes between minor corrections (typos or small errors) and major changes (replacing one traveler with another).
Minor Corrections:
• Allowed for up to 3 characters in first or last name.

• Usually free or charged a minimal service fee.
• No reissuance of the ticket required.
Major Changes:
• Not permitted for transferring a ticket to another person.
• The traveler must cancel and rebook under the correct name.
• Change fees or fare differences may apply.
